

Image courtesy of Stuart Miles, Freepress.com

How to Succeed in Business (By Really Trying)

SAVE THE DATE

Wednesday

June 14th, 2017

7:30AM - 10AM

Adelphi University

55 Kennedy Drive

Hauppauge, NY 11788

Three attorney presenters will describe business building blocks for success. The topics will be relevant to the new entrepreneur and established business owner looking to create, preserve and protect their business assets.

Topics will include:

- Business Survival Tools
- Business information, security and pitfalls
- Practical advice on legal issues facing small businesses

SEATING IS LIMITED

Register at:

REGISTER

MEMBERS: ALWAYS FREE

NON-MEMBERS:

$25 online or $30 On-site

NOT A MEMBER:

Sign up here:

SIGN UP

Sean J. McGowan, Associate at Kaufman & Associates, LLC, Hauppauge, NY.

Experienced in representing emerging growth, middle market and public companies and investment firms in their corporate, securities, financing, borrowing, merger & acquisition and other legal matters.

Francine E. Love, Founder & Principal Attorney of LOVELAW FIRM, PLLC.

After 24 years in corporate life (including 6 years with a start-up), Francine opened her own law firm. Love Law Firm, PLLC. She now serves small and medium-sized businesses delivering high-quality, business-focused legal solutions to her clients.

Elliot M. Portman, Creditor's Rights Attorney with Portman Law Group, P.C.

Regularly engages in creditor's rights law matters. With decades of experience in the credit and collections field, the primary focus is on helping creditors with credit management and collection of overdue receivables.